Key Points of Discussion and Action Items

- Rachel Leininger attended the meeting and has been appointed by the Mayor to assume Lynn Tetley's role with the Task Force. Rachel is also knowledgeable about Sunshine Laws and is willing to brief the Task Force on what is important for us to know as we proceed.
- The Mayor has approved the addition of Equity into the name of the Task Force. From this point forward, the group will be official identified as the City of Wyoming Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Task Force.
- The Mayor is interested in live streaming Task Force Meetings and Task Force was asked for collective opinion regarding this matter. The Task Force discussed and voted against live-streaming meetings now and into the foreseeable future.
 - Judd Weis offered to present updates on behalf of the DEI Task Force to the City Council at public meetings which are live-streamed. Team will discuss this in more detail at the next meeting.
- Group discussed need to be compliant with CDC COVID recommendations for our meetings and requested we identify and secure a larger space for our meetings moving forward.
 - Rachel will assume responsibility and inform the group when secured.
- Rachel Leininger, Director of Recreation and Citizen Engagement and Jeremiah Caudill, the Finance Director will attend next meeting to be interviewed.
 - Becky will update questions and share with interviewees prior to meeting.
- Becky Johnson will Chair the next meeting on Tuesday, November 17, 2020.
 - Becky will issue Agenda.
