

WYOMING PICKLEBALL

Open Play Rotation

Open Play use of the Pickleball Paddle Play Organizer (Organizer)

*PLACE YOUR NAME ON YOUR PADDLE

If there are 7 paddles (people) or less waiting (2 IN-2 OUT):

- Only one side of the Organizer is used
- Winners stay on the court and split
- 2 paddles are pulled from the center of the Organizer
- Losers return their paddles to the outermost open positions of the Organizer
- Winners stay for a maximum of 3 games

If there are 8 paddles (people) or less waiting (4 IN-4 OUT):

- Both sides of the Organizer are used
- Winners place their paddles in the outermost open positions on the Winners side of the Organizer
- Losers place their paddles in the outermost open positions on the Losers side of the Organizer
- 4 paddles are pulled from the center of the Organizer on the side where the red arrow is pointing
- The red arrow is then flipped to the other side of the Organizer

When handling other people's paddles try to avoid touching the handle

What is Open Play?

Open play is for individuals to come and play pickleball in a fun and friendly environment. There could be 15-20+ players at each session. You are welcome to come and leave anytime during the scheduled Open Play session. No sign up required. There is a Paddle Play Organizer System on the east fence so that players have an easy and organized way to rotate into games.

What is Private/Group Play?

Private/Group Play is designated as any time that the courts re not scheduled for Open Play or Lessons. The courts are available for “pick up” games where you coordinate with whom you are playing. No sign up required and no reservations will be taken. Courts are available on a first come; first serve basis. Play is limited to 1 hour if other parties are waiting for a court.
